HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Fifty foundations ranked by approximate endowment, plus two spotlights and six documented exclusions. Every entry gives the endowment with its year, what the grants fund, the founding year and founder, the director and C-suite by name, the annual signature event, and the grant-making essentials: how to apply, known deadlines, and who qualifies. Figures come from Form 990-PF filings, audited statements, or annual reports; "UNVERIFIED" marks what could not be confirmed — never guessed.

RANKED BY ENDOWMENT

1. NOVO NORDISK FOUNDATION

Hellerup, Denmark (Tuborg Havnevej 19, 2900 Hellerup).

Endowment: DKK 694 billion (~US$109bn / ~€93bn) in assets managed by its wholly owned investment arm Novo Holdings A/S on behalf of the foundation — year-end 2025 (down from DKK 1,060bn at year-end 2024, reflecting the Novo Nordisk share price decline).

What it funds: Vision: "improve people's health and the sustainability of society and the planet"; mission: research and innovation in prevention/treatment of cardiometabolic and infectious diseases and the green transition. Grants fund biomedicine/biotechnology, life sciences, natural and social sciences, plus general practice/family medicine, nursing and art history. In 2024 (centenary year) it awarded close to DKK 10.1bn (~€1.35bn) in grants and philanthropic investments across nearly 1,800 new projects; DKK 37.7bn through 4,610+ grants in 2020–2024.

Established: 1924 (official dating; foundation's own history traces origins to 1922; the merged Novo Nordisk Foundation created in 1989).

Founder(s): August Krogh (Nobel laureate in Physiology or Medicine, 1920), H.C. Hagedorn (physician) and August Kongsted (pharmacist) — founders of the Nordisk Insulinlaboratorium foundation structure (1923–24); Thorvald and Harald Pedersen — founders of the Novo Foundation (1951). The two foundations merged in 1989 to form the Novo Nordisk Foundation.

Director / CEO: Chief Executive Officer — Mads Krogsgaard Thomsen; Chair — Lars Rebien Sørensen (since 2018). CEO of Novo Holdings — Kasim Kutay. No other named chief officers of the foundation published.

C-suite: Chief Executive Officer — Mads Krogsgaard Thomsen; Chair — Lars Rebien Sørensen (since 2018). CEO of Novo Holdings — Kasim Kutay. No other named chief officers of the foundation published.

How to apply: Open competitive calls published at novonordiskfonden.dk/en/grant; applications submitted through the Foundation's electronic application system NORMA (register a profile; assessment notifications sent from norma-noreply@novo.dk). No preliminary application stage — full proposals prepared to the call's published guidelines, with host-institution support letters where required. The Foundation gives no feedback on declined applications.

DOCUMENTED, NOT RANKED

STICHTING INGKA FOUNDATION (NETHERLANDS)

Leiden, Netherlands.

Endowment: UNVERIFIED — the Foundation publishes no official endowment figure. Press estimate: ~US$60 billion in assets (Space Daily, June 2026). Context: it is sole owner of Ingka Holding B.V. (Ingka Group), which reported total assets of €57.6bn at 31 August 2024 (FY24) and €46.7bn group equity at FY23 end.

What it funds: Charitable purpose "to create a better everyday life for the many people in need." It does not run its own grant programmes; it achieves the purpose principally by providing funding to the Stichting IKEA Foundation. Ingka Group reinvests ~85% of net profit and pays ~15% as dividend to the Stichting INGKA Foundation (FY24/FY25), which channels funds to the IKEA Foundation.

Established: 1982 (reported; the OECD dates the related Stichting IKEA Foundation to 1982, "established … alongside the INGKA Foundation").

Founder(s): Ingvar Kamprad (founder of IKEA; named as founder on the INGKA Foundation governance page).

Director / CEO: CEO — Anders Moberg; Chairperson of the Board — Jonas Kamprad; Board members — Johan Kuylenstierna, Krister Mattsson, Peter Kamprad (five-seat board; the Kamprad family may occupy up to two seats). The Foundation has ~10 co-workers (governance, finance, cash management, IT/Information Security, administration). No other named chief officers published.

C-suite: CEO — Anders Moberg; Chairperson of the Board — Jonas Kamprad; Board members — Johan Kuylenstierna, Krister Mattsson, Peter Kamprad (five-seat board; the Kamprad family may occupy up to two seats). The Foundation has ~10 co-workers (governance, finance, cash management, IT/Information Security, administration). No other named chief officers published.

How to apply: No public grant programme and no application process — the Foundation does not accept funding requests. Its charitable purpose is fulfilled through funding the Stichting IKEA Foundation (see next entry). Who qualifies: N/A.

Website: https://www.ingkafoundation.org Sources: INGKA Foundation governance page (ingkafoundation.org/governance/); Ingka Group "How we are organised" (ingka.com, FY25); Ingka Group FY24 Annual Summary (total assets €57.6bn); Wikipedia "Stichting INGKA Foundation" citing Space Daily (Jun 2026, ~US$60bn); OECD Development Co-operation Profiles: IKEA Foundation (founded 1982, founder Ingvar Kamprad). ---

IKEA FOUNDATION (NETHERLANDS)

Leiden, Netherlands.

Endowment: UNVERIFIED — no official endowment or balance-sheet figure published; the Foundation is primarily flow-funded via dividends from the Ingka Group through Stichting INGKA Foundation. Scale indicators (official/press): €404m paid out in grants in 2025 (56 new grants); €349m paid out in 2024 (44 new grants, an annual record); nearly €3bn in grants cumulatively since founding. OECD: US$330.9m in cross-border development disbursements in 2024 (100% grants).

What it funds: "Fighting global warming with and for the many people" — accelerating long-term change in high-emitting systems with direct impact on people's lives: Energy; Land, Food & Forests; Buildings & Transport; plus emergency response to humanitarian crises. Strategic, multiyear partnerships with 128+ active partners; priority regions India, Ethiopia, Kenya, Uganda, and expanding in Brazil and Indonesia. Grant sizes range from several hundred thousand euros to €90m+ (e.g., €57.75m to Crux Alliance, €45m to SNV, €42.84m to Tilt Collective, €37.87m to Global Methane Hub).

Established: 1982.

Founder(s): Ingvar Kamprad (founder of IKEA; mandate expanded in 2009 from design/architecture to poverty and climate).

Director / CEO: CEO — Per Heggenes (first CEO, since 2009). No other named chief officers published.

C-suite: CEO — Per Heggenes (first CEO, since 2009). No other named chief officers published.

How to apply: The Foundation does not accept unsolicited funding requests (official FAQ: "Our in-house group of subject experts … scout for new partnerships and grants"). Grants are made through long-term strategic partnerships the Foundation itself identifies; there is no application portal and no open calls.

EDNA MCCONNELL CLARK FOUNDATION

New York, New York (415 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10017; later 477 Madison Avenue per some listings)

Endowment: $321,832,824 (2021 IRS Form 990-PF — the most recent filing showing an asset figure); the 2022 Form 990-PF shows no assets remaining (the foundation was spending down; see note below)

What it funds: Opportunities for low-income and economically disadvantaged youth (ages 9–24) in the United States; large, long-term, performance-based investments in high-performing youth-serving nonprofits; created and spun off Blue Meridian Partners

Established: 1969

Founder(s): Edna McConnell Clark (daughter of Avon Products founder David H. McConnell) and her husband Van Alan Clark

Website: https://www.emcf.org IMPORTANT — LIMITED-LIFE STATUS: In 2016 EMCF announced it would spend down its roughly $1 billion endowment over a decade and go out of business. Its staff and operations transitioned to Blue Meridian Partners (now a standalone nonprofit). EMCF is paying out its last grants; it does not accept unsolicited proposals and there is no open grant-making cycle. ### C-suite (beyond the CEO) - Ralph Stefano — CFO, Assistant Treasurer & Secretary (per 2022 filing); none currently active — the foundation's staff transitioned to Blue Meridian Partners. ### Annual signature event - None found. ### Grant-making / HOW TO APPLY - No open applications. EMCF does not accept unsolicited proposals and never has; it historically invited eligible youth-serving nonprofits to share information via a Youth Organizations Survey Form. With the spend-down, grant-making is concluded. (Blue Meridian Partners, the spun-off collaborative, continues to make large-scale investments — separate entity, bluemeridian.org.)
