The World's Wedding Apparel Houses & Salons

A LIKE® Weddings Guide · LIKE® Magazine

The first guide of LIKE® Magazine's new Weddings department: every major wedding-apparel house and salon in the world — what it sells, where its own boutiques stand, and how to reach it. Houses that sell through stockists rather than their own boutiques are labelled as such; no boutique list in this guide is padded, and the gaps are named at the end.

Named Gaps

South Asia's couture bridal majors (India) are the guide's largest gap and the recommended next build for the department; China's and Korea's domestic houses, Singapore and Hong Kong's multi-brand salons, and Japan's domestic salon groups were identified but not verified to house standard in this pass. Sub-Saharan Africa has no verified own-boutique major and is served through stockists. Tuxedo-rental chains and department-store bridal departments are excluded by design. Full method and counts are in the README accompanying the master CSV.
